DISCRETIONARY RISK OF THE MECHANICAL BREAKDOWN WARRANTY

AWN has a discretion as to whether it will or will not pay a Claim that falls within the Mechanical Breakdown Warranty Terms and Conditions and Limitations. AWN will not exercise that discretion in a way that is unfair and unconscionable, within the Terms and Conditions and limitations of the Mechanical Breakdown Warranty, and will always consider the merits of the Claim and the requirements of the applicable State and Commonwealth legislation.

We also have a comprehensive Complaints Resolution Process which is explained in Section 14 of this contract.

As this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty is a discretionary Product it does not offer the same level of protection as an insurance policy. The level of protection is limited to the Covered Components listed under the heading Significant Characteristics of this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty only. However, AWN has satisfied the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) requirements for an Australian Financial Services Licence.

This Mechanical Breakdown Warranty is not associated with the manufacturer of your Motor Vehicle nor is it an extension of any warranty that was provided by the manufacturer or the Selling Agent. Claims against the manufacturer or the Selling Agent may be available under the Australian Consumer Law. This Mechanical Breakdown Warranty is not a repair or maintenance program for your Motor Vehicle.

There is also a risk when purchasing this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty that one or more of Your Claims may exceed the applicable Benefit Limit for a particular Covered Component under this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty.

Detailed information about the Mechanical Breakdown Warranty Benefit Limits for each benefit under Your Mechanical Breakdown Warranty is listed under the "Significant Characteristics of this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty". There is also a risk that if You fail to meet any of the conditions set out in this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty Contract, AWN may not exercise its discretion in Your favour. Make sure You carefully read the Terms and Conditions for details of the servicing and other conditions that apply to this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty.

COST OF THE MECHANICAL BREAKDOWN WARRANTY

The cost of the Mechanical Breakdown Warranty is dependent on the level of cover You select. In addition to the Mechanical Breakdown Warranty Premium price, You also need to pay any applicable Commonwealth and State taxes and/or charges such as Goods and Services Tax (GST). The total Premium price and amount of these taxes and/or charges will be shown on Your Application Page. The total Premium will also be determined by the payment method used by You. If the Premium is financed or if You use a credit card, interest charges will apply but will differ depending on Your financial provider. Additional charges may apply to Pay by Instalment options.

PAY BY INSTALMENTS

You can choose to pay Your Premium by instalments to help spread Your payment over time. An administration charge will apply to use these facilities, therefore Your Premium will be more than if You choose to pay by a single payment.

The following additional conditions apply to Pay by Instalments Premium:

- If You are paying by instalments and an instalment remains unpaid for 14 days or more, We may refuse a Claim.
- If an instalment remains unpaid for a period of one month past its due date, We can cancel the policy (We will take all reasonable steps to contact You in this time).
- If You have an authorised Claim during the Pay by Instalment term, We will deduct any outstanding instalments from the Claim amount We authorise.

13. SUMMARY OF RIGHT AND REMEDIES UNDER THE ACL

The protection afforded to You under this Product is in addition to and does not substitute for, the rights You have under the Australian Consumer Law (ACL). If and to the extent that You have a right to Claim under the ACL, You also need to Claim under your Mechanical Breakdown Warranty.

The ACL protects consumers by automatically giving them basic, guaranteed rights for goods they purchase ("Consumer Guarantees") at no charge. For example, the ACL requires taking account of the nature of goods, the price, any representations made by the supplier or manufacturer and other relevant circumstances, the goods must be free of defects, do what they are meant to do, be safe, durable and acceptable in appearance and finish, be fit for any particular purpose that the consumer makes known, and comply with any description given or any demonstration model used.

In the event of a breach of a Consumer Guarantee where there is a major failure of the goods, consumers are entitled to reject the goods and choose a replacement or refund and Claim compensation for any reasonably foreseeable loss or damage suffered by consumers as a result of the failure. Where the failure does not amount to a major failure, consumers are entitled to have the supplier repair or replace the goods (at the supplier's choice). Whether a specific failure breaches a Consumer Guarantee and a consumer is entitled to a remedy under the ACL will depend on the circumstances.

Consumer Guarantees have no set time limit but generally last for an amount of time that is reasonable to expect in the circumstances, given factors including the age, cost, quality of the goods, the use made of the goods or any representation made by the supplier or manufacturer. Consumer Guarantees may continue even at the expiry of the Manufacturer's Warranty for the goods or this Mechanical Breakdown Warranty. The exact amount of time that Consumer Guarantees last in the case of a specific purchase varies depending on the circumstances.

Assets may also have an additional Statutory Warranty. The provisions of such warranties vary from State to State. Any Statutory Warranty may be in addition to or overlap the ACL and may also operate concurrently to the ACL.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS UNDER THIS MECHANICAL BREAKDOWN WARRANTY NOT AVAILABLE UNDER ACL

We appreciate that You may want the certainty of knowing that if Assets You buy are faulty they are covered for specific events and a specific time period.

When You purchase the AWN's Products You are obtaining certainty as to the period of coverage and the remedy You will receive and the convenience of having the repair and/or replacement process managed for You by AWN and work undertaken by an Approved Repairer.

You will be entitled to the benefits set out in this Product that are not available under the ACL, subject to the terms and conditions of Your Mechanical Breakdown Warranty, they are;

- Certainty as to the exact period of cover You have for Your Covered Components;
- Specific repair time guarantee (dependant on diagnosis and parts availability);
- Expert advice and assistance;
