

Quick, easy and hassle-free way to sell your car

Use Pickles for access to a national buyer network and professional services

Who is Pickles?

Pickles is a privately-owned Australian company which sells hundreds of thousands of vehicles on consignment, every year, Australia-wide. With 28 locations and an online platform, buying and selling from Pickles is easy. Options to sell your vehicle include:

- Weekly Government, Fleet and Prestige vehicle auctions
- Fixed Price showrooms for roadworthy approved vehicles
- Public and private dealer auctions

What to expect from Pickles

- Unseen vehicle estimates, and reserves provided over the phone
- No low value dealer trade-ins or wasted weekends trying to sell privately
- Financier payments managed on your behalf
- You'll have the freedom to drive your car to the end of the lease
- Your car will be professionally detailed and sold through auction or in the fixed price showrooms

3 simple steps to selling your car

1. Visit picklesnovated.com.au and submit the online vehicle assessment form
2. Pickles staff call you to advise estimated quotes
3. Deliver your vehicle to Pickles and hand over your keys. The Pickles Novated team will take care of the rest
