(ii) it has proper authority to sell the Tender Item; and

(d) If, subsequent to the acceptance of the Tender Offer but before the collection of a Tender Item, the Agent becomes aware that the Seller does not have good title to the Tender Item sold, it has the discretion to cancel the sale of that Tender Item and refund to the Purchaser any moneys paid in respect to that Tender Item only. The Purchaser agrees that it will not make a claim against the Agent in such an instance. If it does so, it agrees to indemnify the Agent from any, and all, costs, on a full indemnity basis that the Agent incurs as a result.

(e) Title in any Tender Item does not pass until the Purchase Price (and if applicable, any other Governmental charges or fees payable pursuant to these Terms and Conditions, including, but not limited to any taxes, levies, duties, imposts, deductions and charges) has been paid in full.

(f) Any guarantee made by the Seller or Agent under this clause 8 is in addition to and is not intended to replace or detract from any rights or remedies a Purchaser may have under the Australian Consumer Law or any other applicable laws.

 - (v) to allocate any monies received from the Purchaser between the Tender Items as it sees fit; and
 - (vi) to regard the sale of multiple Tender Items as interdependent and treat default under a contract for either Tender Item as default under all such contracts;

 - (iii) guarantees as to title to the Tender Item passing to the Purchaser;
 - (iv) guarantees regarding the Purchaser having undisturbed possession of the Tender Item; and
 - (v) guarantees regarding the Tender Item being free from undisclosed encumbrances.

(c) Nothing in this clause 10 or clause 11 (or any other provision of these Terms and Conditions) should be interpreted as attempting to exclude, restrict or modify the application of any applicable provisions of the Australian Consumer Law, or the liability of the Agent or the Seller for failing to comply with these provisions of the Australian Consumer Law or the right of a consumer to make a claim in respect of these guarantees or under any other provision of the Australian Consumer Law.

- (a) the goods forming part of a Tender Item are Non PDH Goods with a purchase price of more than $40,000; or
 - (b) the Purchaser suffers the Loss other than as a result of any breach by the Seller or the Agent of the consumer guarantee or other similar provision of the Australian Consumer Law;
- then, subject to any other laws which may apply and may not be excluded, or in respect of which liability cannot be limited by these Terms and Conditions, the Seller and the Agent will not be liable for any such Loss suffered by the Purchaser. This clause applies even if the Seller and/or the Agent knew or ought to have known that the relevant Loss would be suffered.

 - (C) forfeit any monies paid by the Purchaser in consideration for a Tender Item and/or Tender Items.
- (b) If the Seller defaults on the delivery of a Tender Item or part thereof, the Seller must refund any money which the Purchaser had paid to the Agent on account of its purchase.

- (b) All rights and remedies available to the parties against each other under the general law are subject to these conditions.
- (c) If any of the conditions in these Terms and Conditions are to any extent held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining conditions will not be affected thereby, and will remain in full force and effect.

15. Further special conditions

The Agent may prior to the commencement, or during a Tender announce further special conditions applying to that Tender or a particular Tender item in which event such further special condition or conditions will be deemed to be incorporated into and form part of these conditions.

 - (iii) the information provided by the Seller in relation to each Tender Item is not guaranteed by the Agent;
 - (iv) it must satisfy itself as to the condition, description and state of repair of the Tender Item prior to the Tender;

The Purchaser acknowledges that:

- (a) The OH&S Legislation imposes obligations in respect of safety for workers arising out of the design manufacture and supply of plant and equipment (Plant) for use in a workplace.

- (b) The Agent and the Seller have warned prospective purchasers that no Plant is being offered for sale for use in any workplace and it is the Purchaser's or user's responsibility to ensure that if the Plant is to be so used it is brought to a standard necessary to comply with the OH&S Legislation before being used for this purpose and testing and examination is carried out to ensure it is safe and fit for use in a workplace.
- (c) In so far as it is readily available, information prepared by the designer or manufacturer of the Plant and any records kept by previous owners of the Plant that were required to be kept under the OH&S Legislation ("the information and/or records") is made available for inspection to prospective purchasers and will be provided to the Purchaser.
- (d) Where no such information and/or records are available, no liability for the absence of same is assumed by the Agent and/or the Seller.
